

Asset & Investment Management Area INTERNSHIP

We are looking for recent college economics graduates who are tenacious, curious and reliable, to work within the Asset & Investment Management Business Unit.

The context in which this professional-level intern will work is that of extraordinary operations management in the area of acquisition and/or divestment of real estate assets. Within the corporate hierarchy, he or she will provide support to the reference team and will be closely supervised by a tutor with multi-year experience.

The goal of this internship is to learn the basics of the origination of real estate asset extraordinary operations, with particular focus on financial modelling and analysis.

Specific requisites include:

- a degree in economics
- excellent IT skills (Office package, especially Excel)
- good interpersonal skills and team spirit
- strong organizational and managerial skills

Upon conclusion of the program, the intern will be able to perform the following activities independently:

- utilize Excel in creating financial models to analyze real estate extraordinary operations
- utilize a range of modules in a vertical ERP management system for real estate
- manage document archives
- take on due diligence processes
- take part in multi-disciplinary working groups with high level specific competencies
- manage relations in team working
- analyze contexts and scenarios