

COOKIE POLICY

This site uses cookies to improve your browsing experience. Cookies are small portions of data stored temporarily in your browser memory. The data collected by the cookies is used to compare new and previous visitors, understand how users browse the website, and generally aims to improve the use of the website. Cookies do not record any personal information on users, and any identifiable data will not be stored. If you wish to disable the use of cookies, you must customize your computer settings to delete all cookies or activate a warning message when cookies are stored. To proceed without modifying the cookie settings, simply continue navigating. Visit AboutCookies.org for more information on cookies and how they affect your browsing experience.

TYPES OF COOKIES WE USE

INDISPENSABLE COOKIES

These cookies are essential for browsing the whole website and using all its functions, for example accessing the various protected areas of the website. Without these cookies, some necessary services, such as filling in a form for a competition, cannot be used.

PERFORMANCE COOKIES

These cookies gather information on how users browse a website, for example which pages are most frequently visited, or if error messages are received from web pages. These cookies do not gather information that can identify a visitor. All the information gathered by cookies is aggregated and are therefore anonymous. They are used only to improve the functions of a website. Using our website, users accept that these cookies may be stored on their device.

FUNCTIONAL COOKIES

Cookies allow the website to remember the choices made by users (name, language, region of origin) and provide advanced, customized functions. These cookies may also be used for remembering the changes made to the text size, fonts and other parts of web pages that can be customized.

They may also be used to provide services you have requested, such as watching a video or commenting a blog. The information gathered by this type of cookies may be anonymized so that they do not monitor your browsing activity on other websites. Using our website, users accept that these cookies may be installed on their device.
